

Boost 2019 Customer Conference

Visiting Boston

Here are some things to check out and information you'll want to have at your fingertips.

Weather

We've all heard about New England's infamous weather but see here for a current forecast.

Exploring Boston

Coming in early or staying a few extra days?

- Red Sox might be on the road this week, but catching a game at a Boston sports bar is always lots of fun, particularly over by Fenway park!
- Duck Boats are always nice when the weather cooperates
- Old Town Trolley tours are a fun way to see Boston
- You can get out on the water for a Whale Watch
- Walk the Freedom Trail to explore some of Boston's unique neighborhoods.
- See all of Boston from the Skywalk Observatory in the Prudential Center
- Visit the USS Constitution
- If you're looking for a revolutionary experience, the Boston Tea Party Ships and Museum is a popular choice as is the Old North Church in the North End
- Take a break on a bench in Boston Common
- Visit Boston's Museum of Science or Museum of Fine Arts
- Check out ocean life at the New England Aquarium
- Shoppers can indulge in Fanuil Hall Marketplace, along Newbury Street, or in the Prudential Center